We should be thanking all of you. I was really excited by the results from yesterday's discussion and the path we now have to move forward. It was obvious a lot of work and preparation went into yesterday's presentation. Yes, more work yet to do, but we have direction and you are not alone in getting that work done. If there is any further assistance you need please do not hesitate to ask.

Subject: Many Thanks!

Nicki,

I wanted to thank you for giving Lisa, Davitt, Steve and myself the opportunity to present our three-quarters-baked idea for setting objective, numeric local goals to the Steering Committee. I thought yesterday's discussion added so much value to the process the Local Goals Workgroup and all the Phase III WIP workgroups are working through. We now have buy-in on this objective approach, and a concrete plan in place to bring options back to the Steering Committee soon. I am really excited for what we will be able to do as a team moving forward once we have those goals signed off by the Steering Committee. Tyler, Emily, Ted, Lisa and I are already brainstorming how to communicate the eventual goals, and all of our storylines to stakeholders to make this whole process real and generate options and outcomes that are feasible and understandable at a local level. So again, thank you for giving us the opportunity.

And now, the real work begins!
